

DELICIOUSLY REEM

Terms and Conditions

Once you have received your official quote, Deliciously Reem requires a non refundable 50% deposit to secure your date. Final payment to be made at least 48 hours prior to delivery/pick up (or 7 days for wedding cakes).

Any changes of cake flavour/ design are to be made at least one week prior and may incur further charge.

If you need to postpone your booking within 7 days prior to the collection date, Deliciously Reem will allow you to keep what you have paid as credit to be used within 3 months.

If you choose to pick your cake up, Deliciously Reem takes no responsibility for damage caused to the cake once it has left the premises. It is recommended that your cake is transported on a flat surface such as the floor of your car.

Once your cake is delivered, it is your sole responsibility to handle and store cake in correct manor. This includes appropriate refrigeration and the removal of all inedible decorations before consumption.

Deliciously Reem offers gluten free, dairy free and vegan options. Please note that while we may take the utmost of care in the preparation of your product, all the products are still prepared in the same kitchen, using the same equipment. Therefore, we are unable to 100% guarantee traces will not be present.